

City of Detroit
Department of Recreation Performance Audit
Exhibit 4 – Pittsburgh Parks

Overall Evaluation – Very Good Condition

- Parks were well-maintained with nice, intact playground equipment and safety surfacing.
- Grass was neatly cut for play.
- Minimal trash, if any, was noted in the parks.

The Hill District Park had neatly cut grass and well-maintained equipment with safety surfaces. Areas were cleverly defined and laid out.

City of Detroit
Department of Recreation Performance Audit
Exhibit 4 – Pittsburgh Parks

Frick Park had neatly cut grass and well-maintained equipment with safety surfaces.

Armstrong Park had equipment and fencing in good condition.